Important Notes:

1. RSM does not follow the closing schedule for local schools, including Howard County. If you have a lesson that takes place on a civic or religious holiday and you are not able to attend the lesson because of this holiday, be sure to communicate with the RSM office in order to schedule a makeup (24-hour notice is required).
2. RSM generally follows the weather-closing schedule for the afternoon and evening programs of Howard County local schools. To confirm whether or not we are closed, you should check our website or contact the office.
